ORANGE COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

Modern Workplace Anti-Semitism

VIRTUAL CLE PROGRAM

Tuesday, November 17, 2026

12:30 PM - 1:30 PM | Virtual

Approved for 1 CLE credit in Diversity and Inclusion

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Explore how modern anti-Semitism manifests in the workplace and how federal anti-discrimination law protects Jewish employees. This program examines Jewish identity, recent Title VII case law, and the relationship between anti-Israel expression and workplace discrimination, while offering practical guidance for attorneys advising employers and employees.

PRESENTED BY

Hon. Rory Lancman

Director of Corporate Initiatives and Senior Counsel
Louis D. Brandeis Center for Human Rights Under Law

Sponsored by OCBA

RSVP by 11/11/2026 to ocbany@gmail.com

Orange County Bar Association is a New York State CLE Accredited Provider.

The mandatory CLE rules can be accessed at NYSBA's website: www.nysba.org, from the Unified Court System website: https://www.nycourts.gov/continuing-legal-education-cle, or obtained by calling the NY State Continuing Legal Education Board at 212-428-2105, or toll free at 1-877-NYS-4CLE. This seminar is approved for transitional (newly admitted attorneys) and non-transitional credits (experienced attorneys).